“Finding Communion in the Hearts of Jesus and Mary”

On the cross of salvation,
Jesus was covered in bitterness and mire:
"God made him sin," as St. Paul states with incomparable boldness (2 Cor. 5:21). But he wanted to have next to Himself the purest Heart, "a spring of living waters," "a closed garden," "a sealed fountain" (cf. Song of Songs 4:12-15) which had never known sin, that counterbalanced, by her mere presence, the sufferings which the sins and sufferings of the world had placed in His heart.
There was, at the foot of the Cross, at least one creature who understood perfectly the mystery of His Heart and the reason for His Incarnation and Passion.

She was a creature who penetrated the most intimate depths of Jesus's holy Soul and who had benefited beforehand from the graces of Redemption. She was a creature who took to the Lord all that a human soul, full of grace, can give in love and virtue.

Mary, the new Eve, at the side of the new Adam, now fulfills a complementary role next to Christ:
she offers to Christ her Immaculate Heart
and, in consequence, offers to Him all of herself,
the best within herself.

--Cardinal Pierre Paul Philippe

O Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary

O Hearts united in pure love Set the hearts of all of us on fire Enkindled from Your Hearts above

O Heart of Mary living in Jesus O Heart of Jesus in Mary Make all of our hearts like unto Your Hearts In peace, love and humility

Our sins pierced Your loving Heart, O Jesus O Heart of Mary pierced by pain
Two Hearts united in untold sorrow Let us not offend You again

Triumph, rule and reign, O Hearts beloved In all hearts everywhere Manifest now Your sovereign power
As well as Your merciful care

So the earth may resound from pole to pole
With this most magnificent cry
"Blest be the Hearts of Jesus and Mary!"
Now while we live and when we die

WE CONSECRATE OURSELVES TO YOU FOREVER
